ABOUT

Jennifer is a self-employed, fully qualified nail technician, specialising in natural nails and nail art. Jennifer qualified as a nail tech in 2019, initially in gel polish application. Since then, Jennifer has also fallen in love with the builder nail technique as it encourages nail growth, promoting the strength and structure of the natural nail.

Jennifer is a creative spirit and is known for her nail art. She also has a vast knowledge of nail products and application techniques.

Having developed an allergy to Hema in 2020, Jennifer now also proudly offers a hypoallergenic service which is kinder to hands.
